Russian Ladies: What They Want

Cheryl Weisz | June 7, 2013 | Russian Women | date russian ladies, dating russian ladies, find russian ladies, russian ladies

What Russian ladies really want is one of the most mysterious things in this world. Nevertheless, you should not lose hope because there are still many things that most women like in general. Here are some of the "things" that they desire to help you sweep her off her feet:

Love and affection. Women like to be treated with love and affection. They like it when you give them spontaneous cuddles because they love to feel that profound intimate emotional and physical connection. Take a woman by surprise by sending her flowers at her house or in her workplace even if there's no special occasion. Prepare in advance special dinners and leave together on mini vacations. Make her feel that she's going to have the best time of her life whenever she's with you, and that you're the man who would love her forever.

Compliments. Russian ladies ache for compliments concerning their outfits and the way they look. They particularly love it when they are told that they seemed to have lost weight or that they look younger than their actual age. They need to feel beautiful, feminine, and sexy. Just simply telling them that they look gorgeous is enough to light up those eyes.

Being the center of attention. The last thing that any woman chooses to be is being number 2 in your priority list. She wouldn't want you sending text messages to your buddies, talking to your colleagues on the phone, or eyeing other women when in her company. It is important to make Russian ladies feel that they matter to you. When you're out with them, always make them feel like they are the only one you can see and that your world revolves around them. If you can make them feel better than the other women around them, they will fall for you all the more.

Confident men. Russian ladies covet confident men. Men who are successful in their own path. Men who know how to handle things in most of life's challenges. Because, even in these times, the readiness to come up against importunate battles is still the fundamental key in earning a woman's respect. Women could not resist men who are not afraid of their emotions, their intelligence, and their sexuality.

Appreciation. Women crave for appreciation for every little thing that they do, so you should always appreciate them, even for the smallest of their gestures to please you. You must always make them feel special, and you should, at all times, let them know that you support them in their endeavors. Look for ways to brighten their day to show your appreciation. Most importantly, if you always remember those special things that matter to them, then they would definitely feel appreciated.

Attractive men. Russian ladies fancy guys who look good and dress well; hence, you should strive to be the type of man that they can show off to their friends and other men who are trying to pursue them. Women like it when their friends get envious of their men, or when others comment on how adorable their guys are because they actually enjoy showing off their prized possessions.
